

Mrs Alice Connolly

Rushworth Chronicle

17 May, 1895

We regret to have to record the death of Mrs Connolly, of Reedy Lake.

The deceased, who arrived in this district from Redesdale some sixteen years since, succumbed to blood poisoning on Monday after a week's illness, and leaves a husband and six children to mourn their loss.

The remains were interred in the Whroo cemetery on Tuesday.

The Rev. Fathers O'Reilly and Kavanagh, of Nagambie, officiated at the grave. Mr G. Anderson was the undertaker.

This is almost certainly Alice Connolly, wife of Cornelius Connolly, who was buried at Whroo in April, 1923, aged 50. A subsequent public notice in a newspaper concerning the administration of her estate shows that Mr and Mrs Connolly lived at "Reedy Lake, Whroo".
