

Mr J. (William?) Harrison

Rushworth Chronicle

17 December, 1886

A number of our readers will be sorry to hear that Mr J. Harrison expired at Whroo on Tuesday afternoon, after a lingering illness.

Mr Harrison was engaged in business for many years at Graytown and Costerfield before be removed to his late residence.

The interment list for Whroo cemetery has a William Kirk Harrison, doubly recorded, once as 16 December, 1886. The other burial date shown is 16 November of the same year, the date shown on the plaque in the centre of the cemetery with his age given as 55 years.

Having seen the newspaper report date, this Mr Harrison must be William, with his death in mid-December.
