

Henry Hodge

Murchison Advertiser

29 July, 1904

An old identity of Whroo, Mr Henry Hodge, passed away on Monday last [25 July].

Deceased who was a native of Whroo was aged some 42 years, and followed the occupation of miner.

He contracted what is known as miner's consumption, and during the past six or seven years has been unable to follow his calling.

He was unmarried, having resided with his mother, who still survives him.

The remains were interred at the Whroo cemetery on Wednesday afternoon, with Rev J. R. Walker conducting the funeral service, and there was a large attendance of sympathisers.

[Born in 1862, he must have been one of the early births at Whroo.]
